Amazingly, you were able to keep one of our toughest senior managers engaged for the entire session. This was the most fast-paced, content-driven program I've ever attended. Plus, I can use it today with my people to become a better leader.

It's been a year since your presentation and we're still using the tips you gave us!

The "Yes, AND..." lesson is changing the way I lead my people.

As a result of your workshop, the guys decided to learn Spanish to work better with our sub-contracting partners. Thanks for working hard to learn our business and get to know the Team.

There was a lot of nudging and giggling going on so you were hitting home with our engineers.

Our people opened up in ways I've never seen before during your session. You helped people change their behavior in both their professional and personal lives.

You made me realize I must change the way I work with people.

I took more away from this conference than ever before. Now I'm more relaxed and making better judgments. My husband likes the new less stressed me! Thank you!

From the moment you stood up with a colander on your head, I knew THIS presentation would be different. Sure enough you delivered tips I'm using to help my clients through change.

It's so refreshing to hear personal leadership stories from someone who's actually led people, rather than platitudes from someone who hasn't.

It is my policy to thank those who have influenced me... Thank you for coaching me to success and the realization of a lifelong dream.

You were voted one of our most influential women of the year.
