Your keynote energized our whole conference. I've never seen our superintendents so "on fire" for more information from a speaker. Thanks for presenting an additional session to accommodate all the people who couldn't get into your first breakout.

We started the Professional Learning Community movement last year, but after listening to you at the MSBA Conference I know we have more areas to improve upon. Thank you for your frankness and the reality check.

You scored 4.9 out of 5.0!

You convinced me it is my responsibility to lead from anywhere I sit on the bus.
